MRS. FOSTER'S ADDRESS.

DEAR FRIENDS: I have chosen two texts tonight, Jer., i.ö. "Behold I cannot speak for I am a child." Deut., 8.2 "Thou shalt remember all the way the Lord thy God led thee." A worldly man declared that every anniversary is a time of memory and of tears; and to one without God every anniversary must be that. But to a christian organization which has felt at every step the divine hand leading, anniversaries are occasions for joy and gratitude. Such to us, tonight, is the fourth anniversary of the Wichita Children's flome.

DIED.

One of the saddest, most distressing deaths that have occurred in the city for some time was that of Mrs. J. K. Francis at the family home on North Millwood avenue, West Side, at 10:30 o'clock Saturday night. Mrs. Francis was thought to be in her usual condition of health up to Friday night. Saturday forenoon she became quite sick and a physician was sent for. She continued to grow worse until 2 o'clock at night when the remedies applied seemed to afford relief and the patient thought she would soon be all right, but half an hour later she was dead. Dr. Bass, the attending physician, not being satisfied as to the nature of the trouble and the sudden termination, determined to board found that the deceased had suf-
